

Curriculum vitae

Klaus Per Juul Martiny, born 27 March 1961, Denmark.

Work contact information

Psychiatric Center Copenhagen, Hovedvejen 17, 2000 Frederiksberg. Telephone 0045-38647102.

E-mail klaus.martiny@regionh.dk

Education

MD University of Aarhus 1988, specialist in psychiatry 2000, Postdoc 2004-2010, Clinical Associate Professor 2010-2015, Clinical Associate Research Professor from 2015. Appointed clinical professor of psychiatry, University of Copenhagen May 2020.

Degrees

Ph.D. "Adjunctive Bright Light in Non-seasonal Major Depression", University of Copenhagen, awarded December 6th, 2004.

DMSc "Novel augmentation strategies in Major Depression", University of Copenhagen, awarded November 18th, 2016.

Clinical position

Senior consultant, unit for affective disorders, Mental Health Center Copenhagen, from 2010.

Research Position

Clinical Associate Research Professor, University of Copenhagen, Denmark, from 2015-2020.

Clinical professor from 2020, University of Copenhagen, Denmark.

Recent positions of trust

President (2014-2016) for Society for Light and Biological Rhythms (SLTBR), (2014-2016).

Director at Center for Environmental Therapeutics (2014-). Danish Health and Medicines

Authority: (1) National Clinical Guidelines for unipolar depression (2007), (2) Guideline for Bipolar disorder and Heart Rehabilitation (2013), (3) Guideline for use of antidepressants (2014),

(4) Guideline creating for Institute for Rational Pharmacotherapy (IRF) (2017-). Member of expert committee Danish Medicines Council (2014-2025). Founding member of the Daylight Academy

(2016). Member of expert committee for the Danish Health Technology Council (2023-). Member of the Danish Multidisciplinary Psychiatry Groups (DMPG) creating national guidelines in depression and furthering treatment quality in psychiatry through databases (2023-). Guideline in non-pharmacological treatment of chronic insomnia (Mental Health Services in the Capital Region of Denmark (2023). Guideline for use of rTMS treatment in Depression.

Research focus and major findings

Development and clinical testing of Chronotherapeutic methods such as daylight, bright light therapy, sleep timing and maintenance, and electronic monitoring, to sustain circadian rhythms and improve mood and sleep. Non-invasive brain stimulation such as tVNS, VNS, rTMS, PEMF. Investigations of mental health in the built environment with focus on testing changes in environment that can improve mental health.

Bibliometrics

78 PubMed listed papers. Web of Science: 237 citations in 2024, total number of citations 2255 (without self-citation 2078), H-index 23, average citations per item 21.5, 105 publications. Google Scholar: number of citations 3882, H-Index 28, i10 index 50. ResearchGate: Research Interest Score 2068, H-index 27, Reads 71996, citations 3210. ORCID ID: 0000-0002-7317-5958.

Reviewer of 20 international journals with approximately 15 reviews per year.

Supervision: Running supervision of bachelor/candidate medical students. Head supervisor 4 PhD students, two postdocs, three clinical researchers. Head of ADVANCE - New Interventions in Depression group: currently 10 members. Main focus areas are Chronobiology/Chronotherapeutics, Neurostimulation, Built Environment and Mental Health. Funding within the last 5 years for current projects with a total of 24.5 million DKK.